We, the members of the 1971 Armadillo Staff, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Josephine Gray who has devoted nearly half her lifetime to the teaching profession. Mrs. Gray has given unselfishly of her time and energy toward the education of future generations. She has displayed willing cooperativeness in every phase of the teaching field.

Mrs. Gray began her teaching career at the early age of nineteen years at Spicewood, Texas. After her marriage and with the arrival of four lovely daughters, she temporarily postponed her teaching career. Because of the teacher shortage during World War II, Mrs. Gray resumed teaching at Cherokee. After a few years there, she moved to San Saba where she started in the Junior High Department. Mrs. Gray's kind and understanding nature kept her in this department for many years. She was definitely influential in fostering the desire of many students to complete their high school education.

In 1967 Mrs. Gray moved into high school with the same understanding and consideration which had endeared her to her junior high students. She taught in the Junior and Senior English Department until her retirement this year.

Retirement to Mrs. Gray doesn't mean a drift toward obscurity. It only means more time for her to spend with the organizations she supports, her church, and her family. She'll have more time to enjoy her hobbies, reading and cooking.

Each of Mrs. Gray's former students say, "Thank You!"

Mardi Gras is a gay, colorful celebration held on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Lent begins. The date of Mardi Gras depends on the date of Easter. Societies called "Kreives" organize and pay for parades and other festivities. The best known Kreives are Comus and Rex. Rex, King of the Carnival, reigns for the day. He is the only one to parade unmasked.

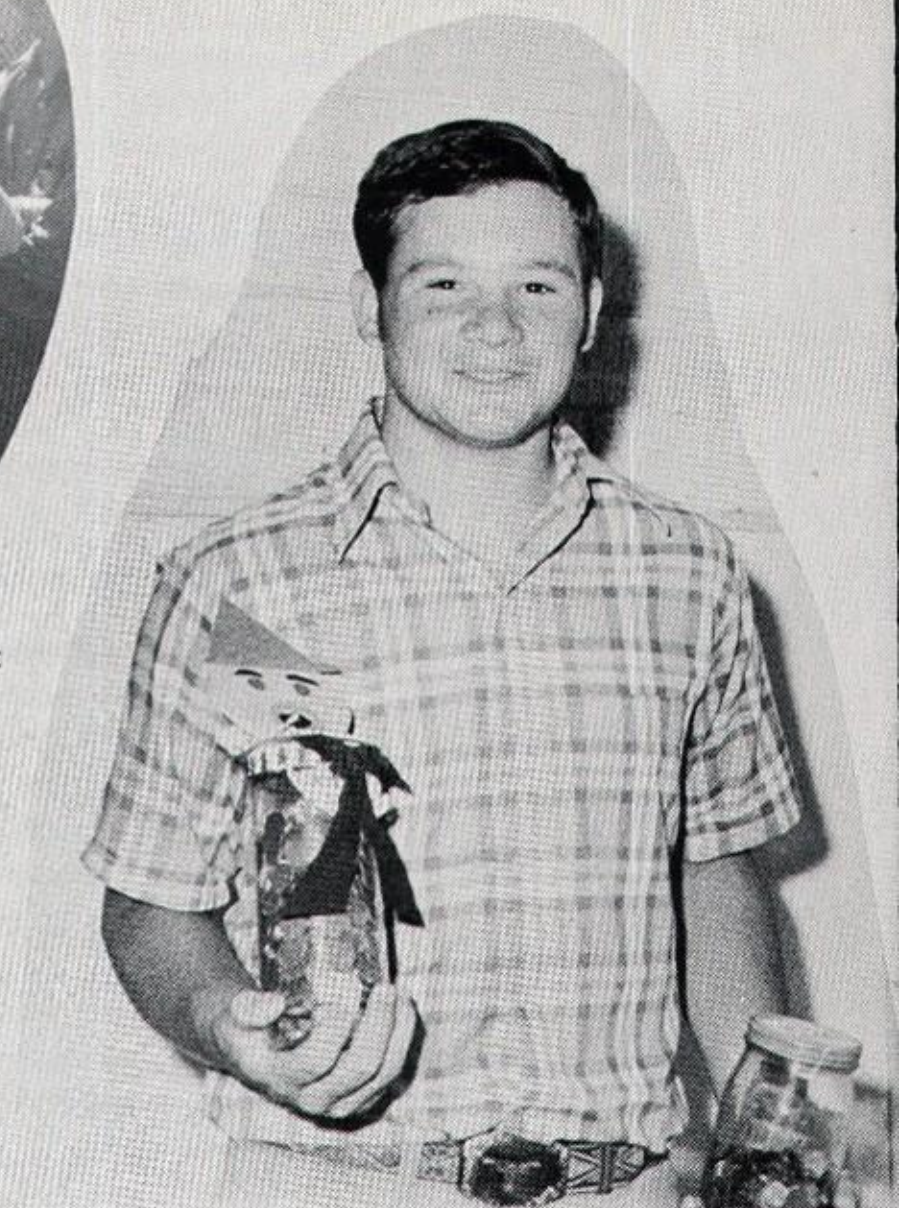

Oh, Billy, please don't leave me . . . Please . .

I've heard of shotgun weddings but this is ridiculous!!

Chip off the 'ole Block!?!

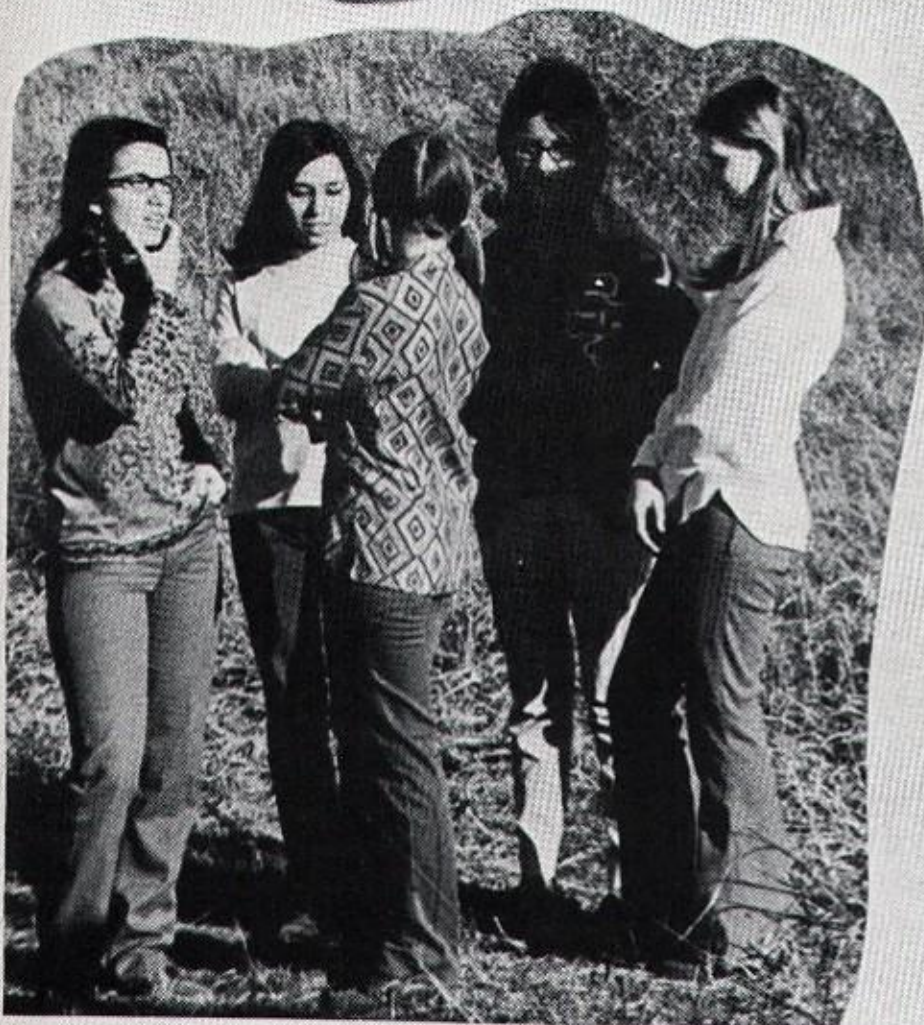

I may be ugly but it's worth it!!!

Ah, What's up Doc?

Don't come any closer or I will JUMP!?!?

San Saba Armadillo Boosters

We, the members of the annual staff are genuinely appreciative of the Boosters who wholeheartedly support our efforts to produce this annual. Without their support it would be impossible for our students to have this record of their high school years.

We take this opportunity to express our gratitude.
